

Farmworker Advocacy Network (FAN)

FAN is a network of organizations that advocates for improved living and working conditions of migrant and seasonal farmworkers (MSFWs) and their families in North Carolina. FAN member organizations identify problems and issues affecting the farmworker population; track farmworker-focused policy; monitor government and other agencies serving and/or enforcing regulations affecting farmworkers; and bring farmworkers' voices to the legislative process.

Short-Term Goals

- ◆ To provide an opportunity for farmworkers to participate in FAN's strategic planning and other initiatives
- ◆ To affect positive change in the way the H-2A program is implemented and enforced in NC
- ◆ To educate state enforcement and other agencies about the reality of farmworker life and how they can serve and be more responsive to farmworkers' needs

Long-Term Goals

- ◆ To improve farmworkers' understanding of and participation in policy formation
- ◆ To remove exceptions for farmworkers in current laws
- ◆ To introduce new legislation benefiting farmworkers
- ◆ To push for accountability in government enforcement and other agencies regarding farmworkers' issues
- ◆ To improve the overall housing and working conditions for farmworkers in North Carolina
- ◆ To increase knowledge about farmworkers in the general public

Participating Organizations

- Episcopal Farmworker Ministry responds to the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of migrant and seasonal farmworkers and their families, and actively supports opportunities for them to become self-directive.
- Farm Labor Organizing Committee (FLOC) is a farm labor union that organizes for economic, legal and human rights for farmworkers. FLOC seeks to address the injustices of sub-minimum wages, exclusion from protective legislation, poor sanitation, health care and housing.
- Legal Aid of North Carolina - Farmworker Unit, provides legal representation to farmworkers on a number of issues including, but not limited to, workers' compensation claims, lost wages, health and safety standards, retaliatory employment discrimination, and blacklisting. Legal Aid also conducts outreach to migrant labor camps and conducts community education on migrant issues.
- National Farm Worker Ministry - NC Office, mobilizes the religious community to support farmworkers who are organizing for justice, empowerment and equality.
- NC Community Health Center Association provides and coordinates technical assistance, training, policy monitoring, and resources to 23 Migrant and Community Health Centers within North Carolina, and in seven mid-Atlantic states (VA, WVA, MD, DE, SC, KY, TN) in order to enhance cultural competence and improve health care delivery to Hispanic/Latino and farmworker patients.
- NC Justice & Community Development Center Immigrants Legal Assistance Project provides legal representation to farmworkers who are unable to access traditional legal services programs, and focuses on class actions and impact cases. ILAP also conducts outreach to migrant labor camps and provides education to immigrant advocates about workers' legal rights.
- NC Farmworkers' Project is a community-based organization dedicated to organizing migrant and seasonal farmworkers and developing farmworker leaders.
- NC Farmworker Health Program is committed to providing health care through a statewide network of service providers working together to improve the health of migrant and seasonal farmworkers and their families in North Carolina.
- Student Action with Farmworkers (SAF) is a nonprofit organization that brings students and farmworkers together to learn about each other's lives, share resources and skills, improve conditions for farmworkers and build diverse coalitions working for social change.

Advisory Member only*

Contact Information

Melinda Wiggins, Executive Director
Student Action with Farmworkers (SAF)
1317 W Pettigrew Street
Durham, NC 27705
|P| 919.660.3616
|F| 919.681.7600
|E| mwiggins@duke.edu

Lori Fernald Khamala, Interfaith Outreach Coordinator
National Farm Worker Ministry
4907 Garret Road
Durham, NC 27707
|P| 919.489.4485
|F| 919.489.9149
|E| lori@nfwm.org